

INDEPENDENT REGULATORY BOARD FOR AUDITORS

Call for nominations to serve on the IRBA's Education, Training and Professional Development Committee (EDCOM)

Appointment of two members

Johannesburg / 18 March 2025

The IRBA hereby calls for nominations for two members to the Education, Training and Professional Development Committee (EDCOM).

The EDCOM is a statutory committee whose responsibilities include making recommendations to the Board regarding the:

- accreditation and monitoring of professional bodies,
- requirements relating to continued education, training and professional development,
- training and professional competency requirements,
- registration of RAs where an assessment of their competence is required
- objectives of transformation in the profession and
- education and research relating to matters affecting the auditing profession.

Applicants are required to have experience and interest in the field of education, training and the professional development of professional accountants and auditors.

In addition, the following experience is required for this appointment:

- One member with experience in academia preferably an individual with experience in delivery of the ACCA academic programme; and
- One member from an auditing firm with experience in the training and development of RAs, preferably a firm with trainees registered on the ACCA programme or with experience and exposure to trainees from both ACCA and SAICA.

Eligible persons who meet the criteria, and who wish to be considered for appointment, are invited to submit their applications by email to:
